Remember...

- Opinion-based adjectives come before factual ones (e.g., "an amazing red car" not "red amazing car") .
- This order rarely changes, except for idiomatic or fixed expressions (e.g., "big bad wolf") .
- Coordinate adjectives (from the same category) use commas, while cumulative adjectives (from different categories) do not and must follow the order .
- She wore a bright, cheerful dress.
- He bought a large old wooden table.
