

MISCELLANEOUS: 1-25

REVISION - 1

Prof. Tommy Cherian
8547006780

Active - Passive

1.The regulatory authority has called for an explanation from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits.

- A. An explanation has called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.
- B. An explanation has been called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.
- C. An explanation had been called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.
- D. An explanation is called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.

1.The regulatory authority has called for an explanation from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits.

- A. An explanation has called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.
- B. An explanation has been called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.
- C. An explanation had been called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.
- D. An explanation is called for from every applicant whose declaration appears materially inconsistent with the supporting affidavits by the regulatory authority.

2.No prudent investigator would overlook discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny.

- A. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny would have been overlooked by no prudent investigator
- B. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny would be overlooked by no prudent investigator.
- C. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny would overlooked by no prudent investigator.
- D. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny will be overlooked by no prudent investigator.

2.No prudent investigator would overlook discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny.

- A. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny would have been overlooked by no prudent investigator
- B. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny would be overlooked by no prudent investigator.
- C. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny would overlooked by no prudent investigator.
- D. Discrepancies that had been specifically flagged during the preliminary scrutiny will be overlooked by no prudent investigator.

3. Why did the board not communicate the revised guidelines to the departments affected by the amendment?

- A. Why were the revised guidelines not communicated to the departments affected by the amendment?
- B. Why the revised guidelines were not communicated to the departments affected by the amendment?
- C. Why did the revised guidelines not communicated to the departments affected by the amendment?
- D. Why were not communicated the revised guidelines to the departments affected by the amendment?

3. Why did the board not communicate the revised guidelines to the departments affected by the amendment?

- A. Why were the revised guidelines not communicated to the departments affected by the amendment?
- B. Why the revised guidelines were not communicated to the departments affected by the amendment?
- C. Why did the revised guidelines not communicated to the departments affected by the amendment?
- D. Why were not communicated the revised guidelines to the departments affected by the amendment?

4. They had the consultant redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.

- A. The consultant had redrafted the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.
- B. The consultant was had to redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.
- C. The consultant was made to redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.
- D. The consultant was made redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.

4. They had the consultant redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.

- A. The consultant had redrafted the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.
- B. The consultant was had to redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.
- C. The consultant was made to redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.
- D. The consultant was made redraft the entire proposal after the finance wing objected to several clauses.

5. The committee has taken exception to the language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday.

- A. Exception has been taken to the language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday by the committee.
- B. The language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday has been taken exception to by the committee.
- C. Exception has taken to the language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday by the committee.
- D. The language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday has taken exception to by the committee.

5. The committee has taken exception to the language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday.

- A. Exception has been taken to the language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday by the committee.
- B. The language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday has been taken exception to by the committee.????
- C. Exception has taken to the language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday by the committee.
- D. The language employed in the memorandum circulated yesterday has taken exception to by the committee.

6. Had the clerk verified the annexures carefully, the omission might have been detected earlier.

- A. Had the annexures verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.
- B. Were the annexures verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.
- C. Had the annexures been verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.
- D. Had been the annexures verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.

6. Had the clerk verified the annexures carefully, the omission might have been detected earlier.

- A. Had the annexures verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.
- B. Were the annexures verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.
- C. Had the annexures been verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.
- D. Had been the annexures verified carefully by the clerk, the omission might have been detected earlier.

7. The auditors found the justification wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.

- A. The justification was found wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.
- B. The justification was found to wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.
- C. The justification found wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.
- D. The justification was found being wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.

7. The auditors found the justification wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.

- A. The justification was found wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.
- B. The justification was found to wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.
- C. The justification found wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.
- D. The justification was found being wholly inadequate in light of the documentary evidence produced.

8. The department will look into the complaints after the preliminary report is submitted.

- A. The complaints will looked into after the preliminary report is submitted.
- B. The complaints are looked into after the preliminary report is submitted.
- C. The complaints will be looked into after the preliminary report is submitted.
- D. The complaints will be looked after into after the preliminary report is submitted.

8. The department will look into the complaints after the preliminary report is submitted.

- A. The complaints will looked into after the preliminary report is submitted.
- B. The complaints are looked into after the preliminary report is submitted.
- C. The complaints will be looked into after the preliminary report is submitted.
- D. The complaints will be looked after into after the preliminary report is submitted.

9. No one had informed the delegates that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.

- A. The delegates were not informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- B. The delegates had not been informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- C. The delegates had not informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- D. The delegates have not been informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.

9. No one had informed the delegates that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.

- A. The delegates were not informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- B. The delegates had not been informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- C. The delegates had not informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
- D. The delegates have not been informed that the keynote address had been postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.

Identify the figures of speech

10. “The wind whispered through the abandoned corridor.”

- A. Hyperbole
- B. Personification
- C. Apostrophe
- D. Metonymy

“The wind whispered through the abandoned corridor.”

A. Hyperbole

B. Personification

C. Apostrophe

D. Metonymy

Explanation: Human action (“whispered”) is attributed to a non-human object (wind).

11. “He is the black sheep of the family.”

- A. Euphemism
- B. Oxymoron
- C. Metaphor
- D. Irony

“He is the black sheep of the family.”

- A. Euphemism
- B. Oxymoron
- C. Metaphor
- D. Irony

Direct comparison without “like/as”; a person is equated with “black sheep.”

12. “The pen is mightier than the sword.”

- A. Synecdoche
- B. Metonymy
- C. Antithesis
- D. Epigram

“The pen is mightier than the sword.”

A. Synecdoche

B. Metonymy

C. Antithesis

D. Epigram

“Pen” stands for writing/intellect and “sword” for military force.

13. “Parting is such sweet sorrow.”

- A. Oxymoron
- B. Paradox
- C. Pun
- D. Litotes

“Parting is such sweet sorrow.”

A. Oxymoron

B. Paradox

C. Pun

D. Litotes

Two contradictory terms (“sweet” and “sorrow”) are combined.

14. “The streets were a furnace beneath the noon sun.”

- A. Simile
- B. Hyperbole
- C. Metaphor
- D. Imagery

“The streets were a furnace beneath the noon sun.”

- A. Simile
- B. Hyperbole
- C. Metaphor
- D. Imagery

Direct identification of streets with “a furnace.”

15. “She wept oceans of tears after hearing the verdict.”

- A. Hyperbole
- B. Personification
- C. Transferred Epithet
- D. Onomatopoeia

“She wept oceans of tears after hearing the verdict.”

A. Hyperbole

B. Personification

C. Transferred Epithet

D. Onomatopoeia

Deliberate exaggeration for emphasis.

16. “The murmuring bees lulled me to sleep.”

- A. Alliteration
- B. Onomatopoeia
- C. Assonance
- D. Personification

“The murmuring bees lulled me to sleep.”

A. Alliteration

B. Onomatopoeia

C. Assonance

D. Personification

“Murmuring” imitates the natural sound associated with bees.

17. “He passed away last night.”

- A. Euphemism
- B. Litotes
- C. Irony
- D. Circumlocution

“He passed away last night.”

A. Euphemism

B. Litotes

C. Irony

D. Circumlocution

Mild expression used instead of blunt/harsh “died.”

18. “Not bad at all” (meaning very good).

A. Understatement

B. Litotes

C. Irony

D. Euphemism

“Not bad at all” (meaning very good).

A. Understatement

B. Litotes

C. Irony

D. Euphemism

Affirmation expressed through negation of the opposite.

Error Correction

19.

A. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees were present at the deliberations.

B. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees was present at the deliberations.

C. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees have been present at the deliberations.

D. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees are present at the deliberations.

A. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees were present at the deliberations.

B. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees was present at the deliberations.

C. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees have been present at the deliberations.

D. Not only the chairman but also every member of the subcommittees are present at the deliberations.

In correlative constructions, verb agrees with the nearer subject; every member is singular.

20.

- A. Such were his eloquence that even his critics applauded reluctantly.
- B. Such was his eloquence that even his critics applauded reluctantly.
- C. Such had been his eloquence that even his critics applauded reluctantly.
- D. Such is his eloquence that even his critics had applauded reluctantly.

- A. Such were his eloquence that even his critics applauded reluctantly.
- B. Such was his eloquence that even his critics applauded reluctantly.
- C. Such had been his eloquence that even his critics applauded reluctantly.
- D. Such is his eloquence that even his critics had applauded reluctantly.

Idiomatic structure: Such + be + noun + that.

21.

- A. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, were invited to the ceremony.
- B. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, have been invited to the ceremony.
- C. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, was invited to the ceremony.
- D. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, are invited to the ceremony.

- A. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, were invited to the ceremony.
- B. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, have been invited to the ceremony.
- C. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, was invited to the ceremony.
- D. The captain, along with his coaching staff and reserve players, are invited to the ceremony.

Verb agrees with the main subject; along with does not affect agreement.

22.

- A. Few indeed were the leaders who has commanded such universal respect.
- B. Few indeed were the leaders who have commanded such universal respect.
- C. Few indeed was the leaders who have commanded such universal respect.
- D. Few indeed had been the leaders who has commanded such universal respect.

- A. Few indeed were the leaders who has commanded such universal respect.
- B. Few indeed were the leaders who have commanded such universal respect.
- C. Few indeed was the leaders who have commanded such universal respect.
- D. Few indeed had been the leaders who has commanded such universal respect.

Relative verb agrees with plural antecedent leaders.

23.

- A. No less than fifty applicants has withdrawn their candidature after the revised notification.
- B. No less than fifty applicants have withdrawn their candidature after the revised notification.
- C. No less than fifty applicants had withdrew their candidature after the revised notification.
- D. No less than fifty applicants has withdrew their candidature after the revised notification.

- A. No less than fifty applicants has withdrawn their candidature after the revised notification.
- B. No less than fifty applicants have withdrawn their candidature after the revised notification.
- C. No less than fifty applicants had withdrew their candidature after the revised notification.
- D. No less than fifty applicants has withdrew their candidature after the revised notification.

With a plural noun after no less than, a plural verb is standard.

24.

- A. It is high time the authorities take stringent action against habitual offenders.
- B. It is high time the authorities took stringent action against habitual offenders.
- C. It is high time the authorities had taken stringent action against habitual offenders.
- D. It is high time the authorities have taken stringent action against habitual offenders.

- A. It is high time the authorities take stringent action against habitual offenders.
- B. It is high time the authorities took stringent action against habitual offenders.
- C. It is high time the authorities had taken stringent action against habitual offenders.
- D. It is high time the authorities have taken stringent action against habitual offenders.

High time is followed by past subjunctive/simple past.

25.

- A. Scarcely had the final bell rung when the students rushed out of the hall.
- B. Scarcely the final bell had rung when the students rushed out of the hall.
- C. Scarcely had the final bell rung than the students rushed out of the hall.
- D. Scarcely had rung the final bell when the students rushed out of the hall.

- A. Scarcely had the final bell rung when the students rushed out of the hall.
- B. Scarcely the final bell had rung when the students rushed out of the hall.
- C. Scarcely had the final bell rung than the students rushed out of the hall.
- D. Scarcely had rung the final bell when the students rushed out of the hall.

Correct inversion + correlative pair: Scarcely... when.